The Port Commission met at the Westmark Baronoff Hotel lobby on March 9, 2011, arriving late morning in Juneau, Alaska, and began a series of meetings with State of Alaska legislators.

The Commission generally discussed the status of the Alaska Marine Highway System and, in particular, the Agreements between the Port of Bellingham and the State of Alaska. The Commission heard the concerns as expressed by the legislative members.

No formal actions were taken. The Commission returned to Bellingham on Friday, March 11, 2011.
